

Listen For It

The lullaby from Episode 4, Listen For It.

VERSE 1

The dusty track ran straight and long, a galah called above, the red gate and the old gum tree, the landmarks that we loved,
 the red dust soft beneath our feet, the sky gone wide and blue,
 we didn't know the way from here, but here we were, we two.

CHORUS

Slow down now, slow down, let the quiet find its way, slow down now, slow down, it was waiting there all day.

VERSE 2

We chased the letter round the bend and stopped and looked around,
 the landmarks gone, the farmhouse gone, just open sky and ground, the red dirt held me where I stood, the blue went on and on,
 I let the quiet do its work, and then the rush was gone.

CHORUS

Slow down now, slow down, let the quiet find its way,
 slow down now, slow down, it was waiting there all day.

BRIDGE

A moo came low across the grass, a galah from the gum, between those two old sounds we knew the way that we had come,
 the gate swung wide, the farmhouse light came warm across the track,
 and something in that golden glow said welcome, welcome back.

FINAL CHORUS

Slow down now, slow down, let the quiet find its way,
 slow down now, slow down, it was waiting there all day.
